RESPONSE TO NOTICE OF INCOMPLETE REPLY

Assistant Commissioner of Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

RECEIVED
NOV 27 2001
TECH CENTER 1600/2900

In response to Notice of Incomplete Reply mailed on April 16, 2001, Applicants hereby state as follows:

1. That they are a small entity;
2. That they have previously paid through their deposit account (documentation attached under Coph 1003) a total of $7514:

- $6,714 extra total claims fees
- $400 extra independent claims fees
- $270 multiple dependent claim fees
- $130 late surcharge

3. That the Patent Office is attempting to assess an additional $7,776 for extra claims, based on its belief that Applicant is a large entity;

I hereby certify that this correspondence is being deposited with the United States Postal Service as first class mail in an envelope addressed to: Assistant Commissioner of Patents, Washington, D.C. 20231, on September 14, 2001.

Clark G. Sullivan, Reg. No. 36,942

4. That the total fees due, assuming that the applicant was a large entity, would be $15,290 ($7,514 + $ 7,776);

5. That the actual fees due, because Applicant is a small entity, are $7,645;

6. That because Applicants have already paid $7,514, they owe only $131 more in complete payment of the filing fees for this application.

Accordingly, the Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge the remaining filing fee of $131.00 to deposit account no. 11-0980. To the extent that Applicant is in error, the Patent Office is authorized to charge any deficiency or to credit any overpayment to this same deposit account. Before assessing any additional fees, however, Applicant would appreciate receiving a phone call informing him of the action that the Patent Office intends to take.

A copy of the NOTICE is enclosed herewith.

Attached is a conditional request for an extension of time. As explained therein, Applicants do not believe that an extension of time is needed for this submission, but authorize the Patent Office to charge any extension of time fees to the extent that any such fees are owed.

Respectfully submitted,

Clark G. Sullivan
